The Secrets of Canyon Road

9:45am-11:45am

Santa Fe's Canyon Road is hardly a secret but finding the treasures in one of America's oldest and most charming neighborhoods definitely benefits from someone that knows the argot. Your guide will serve as translator helping you decipher "the usual" from "the sublime" among galleries, shops and restaurants as you saunter this mile and a half wonder. This place is an oasis for shoppers, art lovers and people-watchers and it's easy to become distracted so we promise to keep you on track, but not necessarily along the beaten path, of the arcane, the archaic, the inane and the mosaic of this provocative community.

COST: $65 per person, based on a minimum of 6 guests. Pricing includes transportation, guide and gratuities.

Fine Arts & Frescoes Tour

3:30pm-5:30pm

Santa Fe is considered a repository of art and culture particularly Native American and Spanish religious works; there are wonderful tours featuring both. We were considering that maybe we have been overlooking our Fine Arts and should offer a new tour. So we are, but we also thought it needed a unique angle. We adore alliteration so we added murals to the mix. You'll be given a private tour to the Museum of Fine Arts with a focus on the walls in the courtyard, Burro Alley, La Fonda and some public buildings where fabulous frescoes and marvelous murals await. You'll realize how Fine Arts and Frescoes tie together in that Santa Fe way where we are surrounded by so many things intertwined serendipitously.

Cost: $40 per person, based on a minimum of 10 participants, includes a 4-day museum pass and guide gratuity.
